PROCEEDINGS

Status Re: Sentencing-Held. Defense counsel for Mr. Wan waives the interpreter for his client. The court will not schedule any sentencing dates for any of the bid rigging cases until after the first trial takes place in US. v. Florida, et al. The court does not set a further status conference date. The government shall submit a status statement to the court once the first trial is completed or once it is apparent that the first trial will not go forward to schedule a new date for setting of sentencing hearings. The court informs the parties that sentencing dates will be determined by age of case with the oldest cases going forward first.
